

Link

For national participants in MNADV's
Lethality Assessment Program—Maryland Model

A periodic newsletter to update Lethality Assessment Program (LAP) participants throughout the country on events, reports, best practices, and other significant actions occurring in participating jurisdictions related to implementation of the LAP.

Save the Date!

Maryland Network Against Domestic Violence (MNADV) is hosting a one-day conference for professionals who encounter domestic violence in their work, including social workers, counselors, advocates, attorneys, health care professionals, and criminal justice professionals, including law enforcement.

Request for Proposals

Inform. Empower. Advocate.

Working to End Domestic Violence in Maryland

Friday, June 3, 2016

DoubleTree at Hilton Annapolis | Annapolis, MD

We're interested in your expertise! Please see the next page for details.

Please submit the following information at mnadv.org/dvconference by September 30, 2015:

- Half page description of the 90 minute workshop (5-7 sentences long), including a title and learning objectives.
- Short biographical sketch of each presenter (one paragraph, 2-5 sentences long).
- Resume for each presenter (for MNADV records only).
- A maximum of two presenters will be able to attend the conference for free.

Proposals will be reviewed by the conference planning committee and presenters will be notified by the end of September. Selected workshop presenters must confirm their availability to present by October 31, 2015. Workshop presentations must be submitted in PowerPoint to MNADV by February 26, 2016.

For information, contact MNADV: mnadv.org | info@mnadv.org | 301.429.3601

MNADV is seeking workshop proposals for its June 3, 2016 statewide domestic violence conference. Workshop proposals are being sought for the conference including, but not limited to, the following target areas:

- Strategies for Working with Survivors who Use Substances
- Addressing Complex Trauma
- Intersection of Domestic Violence and Human Trafficking, Sexual Assault and/or Stalking
- Best Practices for Working with Culturally Specific Communities
- New Strategies to Engage Youth and Serve Teen Victims of Dating Violence
- The Impact of Domestic Violence on Children and the Parent-Child Relationship
- Innovative Approaches to Abuse Intervention Services
- Practical Usage of the Danger Assessment and Lethality Assessment in Domestic Violence Cases
- New Responses to Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault on College Campuses
- Using Awareness of Secondary Trauma and Promoting Self-Care to Aid in Staff Retention
- Innovative Approaches and Best Practices for Fatality Review and the Community Coordinated Response
- Effective Strategies for Criminal Justice: Law Enforcement and Prosecution Approaches
- Approaching Domestic Violence from Each Branch of the Military
- National Best Practices for Family Justices Centers
- Overcoming Barriers and Effectively Serving Older Adults

Benefits to presenting at the conference include:

- Networking opportunities with domestic violence professionals
- An opportunity to showcase your work and promote best practices throughout the state
- Free attendance at the conference with breakfast and lunch provided
- Free social work CEUs for presenting and attending
- An honorarium to support your organization and to assist with conference-related expenses
- Being part of the solution!

Please contact Project Director Megan Rosenfeld at mrosenfeld@mnadv.org or 301-429-3601 if you have any questions about the conference.

We look forward to receiving your proposals and seeing you in June!

We're also particularly interested in your work with the Lethality Assessment Program:

- How have you partnered with culturally specific providers to better serve victims?
- How have you sustained interest, enthusiasm, and fidelity to the model in your community?
- What re-training needs have been identified, and how did you address them?
- How have you adapted the way you handle hotline calls or provide services to accommodate LAP victims?